RE: NLRB v. Boyd, Misc. Action No. 05-71-GMS

Dear Judge Sleet:

This subpoena enforcement matter was originally scheduled for a show cause hearing on September 13, 2005. Because the Respondent began complying with the subpoena, the Petitioner asked for a sixty-day continuance to permit the parties an opportunity to resolve the matter without resort to the Court. The Court granted the continuance and directed the Petitioner to file a status report no later than November 7, 2005. On November 7, 2005, the government reported that the Respondent was cooperative. The government asked the Court for an additional thirty days to allow the Respondent to produce more documents and give further testimony.

The National Labor Relations Board ("NLRB") has scheduled an additional meeting with Mr. Boyd for December 13, 2005. The NLRB requests that the Court continue this matter for a short time, until December 16, 2005, to allow that meeting to occur. The Petitioner hopes to dismiss this case following that meeting, provided that the Respondent produces the expected documents on December 13.

The government is available to answer any concerns the Court may have.
